SUDDEN DEATH.

George Levisne of Eagleville Expires Early Monday Morning.

George Levisne, aged 22, died suddenly at the local police station Monday morning. Levisne did not have a place to sleep Sunday evening, and crawled into the hallway at 960 Main street and settled himself in a chair there for the night. He was subject to asthma and could not sleep lying down. He was also subject to epileptic fits.

A little after 4 o'clock Monday morning he was discovered in a serious condition by Patrolman Grady, who resides in the house next to 960 Main street. Patrolman Grady and Patrolman Paulhus as they were leaving the station house at 5 o'clock. They took Levisne to the emergency ward at the police station and called Dr. C. H. Gravid. The doctor said that Levisne's condition was critical, and summoned the ambulance from St. Joseph's hospital, but before it arrived Levisne was seized with another fit and died. The body was turned over to funeral director E. E. Hickey and removed to his rooms on Bank street.

Levisne was very well known in the city, having worked in a local lunch wagon, but of late had been working in Eagleville, where he had a wife and child. He had been urged by his

JEWETT CITY

Funeral of Miss Alda Pariseau—Aspirook Machinists Feast and Make Merry—Boys Violate Law, Parents Pay.

The funeral services of Miss Alda Pariseau were held from St. Mary's church Monday morning, a requiem high mass being celebrated by the Rev. J. H. Elmquist. The bearers were J. H. Elmquist, H. Salas, L. Masse, E. Maynard, J. LaValle and E. Rousseau. The services were in charge of Funeral Director J. H. Hourigan.

Clam Bake and Field Day.

In Brewster's woods Saturday afternoon, the annual clam bake and field day of the Aspirook machinists was held. The affair was in charge of E. H. Chapman and Peter McArthur, assisted by an able committee.

Chapman, a chief of no little renown, had the culinary department under his immediate supervision, and made his usual success of the job, being assisted by Cooks Coudie, Chowder, a la Aspirook was served at noon, which was preceded and followed by sundry bites of cheese and crackers, until at 3:45 the bake was opened and the clam began to sing. Such a bake the 75 who enjoyed it all declared they had never before enjoyed. There were white and sweet potatoes, sweet corn, cucumbers, white and brown bread.

During the day there was an interesting card game of amusements, jumping, racing and other feats of athletic strength and skill. The principal event was a ball game between the married and single men, won by the single men by the narrow margin of 15 to 15.

The heavy thunder shower which came late in the afternoon gave warning of its approach so that no one was outdoors when it fell. The day was pronounced an unqualified success.

Trespassed on Railroad Property.

In the town court Monday morning the boys about 12 years old were brought before Judge H. H. Burnham, charged with trespass on the property of the New York, New Haven & Hartford R. R. Co. and attaching themselves to cars. All pleaded guilty.

On the recommendation of Prosecutor A. M. Brown, and after a bit of good advice from the judge, they were put on probation, the cases to be continued until November. The costs in each case of $3.41 were paid by the parents of the boys.

Pleasure for Boys' Club.

The Boys' club of the Congregational church enjoyed their summer picnic immensely on Saturday afternoon at a social in the church vestry under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. H. H. Burnham.

At three o'clock through the kindness of A. G. Brewster, A. A. Young, F. S. Leonard and F. E. Roberson the boys were treated to an hour's automobile ride. On their return to the vestry they were seated around a large table, over which hung a shell, with streamers extending to the ends of the table. There they were regaled with baked beans, meat and
